An Assistant Specialist position in Systematic Entomology is available in the Department of Entomology at University of California, Riverside. The position requires a MSc degree in Entomology and 2 years of experience in systematics of Heteroptera. Experience with digital imaging (Microptics and Leica systems), confocal microscopy, and scanning electron microscopy, specimen curation including specimen loans, databasing, and online image management are required. Also required is experience with taxonomy and phylogenetics of Heteroptera with emphasis on Reduviidae and Schizopteridae. Additional requirements of the position include: professional experiences such as manuscript review and meeting presentations; and university and public service.

The position is for one year, with the possibility of continued funding for additional time. Salary will be commensurate with experience.

Interested applicants should apply here https://aprecruit.ucr.edu/apply/JPF00422 Please upload a curriculum vitae, and provide the names and email addresses of three references. Other questions can be directed to Christiane Weirauch christiane.weirauch@ucr.edu.

Application deadline is November 11, 2015.

UCR is a world-class research university with an exceptionally diverse undergraduate student body. Its mission is explicitly linked to providing routes to educational success for underrepresented and first-generation college students. A commitment to this mission is a preferred qualification. Advancement through the faculty ranks at the University of California is through a series of structured, merit-based evaluations, occurring every 2-3 years, each of which includes substantial peer input.

The University of California is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, age, disability, protected veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law.