

Entomology Seminar Schedule Spring 2009

6/2/2009 8:13 AM

| Date | Speaker | Title | Host |
|--------|--|---|---------------------|
| Mar 30 | Catherine Hill Medical Entomology, Public Health, Purdue University | Tick genome organization and evolution: Insights from the Ixodes scapularis genome project | Ray (2-5998) |
| Apr 6 | Emerson Lacey Dept of Entomology, UCR | Aggregation pheromones of clytine beetles (Coleoptera: Cerambycidae) | Carde 2-4492 |
| Apr 13 | Ulrich Mueller Intergrative Biology Univ. Texas at Austin | Principles of Insect Fungiculture: Lessons for Human Agriculture? | Visscher 2-3973 |
| Apr 20 | Brian Federici, UCR Entomology | Evolution of a Novel Insect Organelle from a DNA Virus - A Recent Case of Symbiogenesis | Heraty 2-6351 |
| Apr 27 | Ted Center USDA-ARS, Invasive Plant Research Laboratory, Fort Lauderdale, Florida | Biological Control of Invasive Species as an Essential Component of Everglades Restoration | Hoddle (2-4714) |
| May 4 | Claire Kremen Dept. Environ. Sci. Policy and Management UC Berkeley | Honey bee pollination "crisis": can native bees take up the slack? | Redak (2-7250) |
| May 11 | AL BOYCE LECTURE: John Carlson Dept. Molecular, Cellular, and Developmental Biology, Yale University | Olfaction in Drosophila and Anopheles | Carde 2-4492 |
| May 18 | Roger Moon Department of Entomology University of Minnesota | Dynamics in some multivoltine muscid fly populations | Mullens (2-5800) |
| May 25 | HOLIDAY: no seminar | | |
| Jun 1 | Michael Rogers Department of Entomology UF / IFAS / Citrus Research and Education Center | Asian citrus psyllid and citrus greening diseases: A new challenge for citrus IPM in Florida | Hoddle (2-4714) |